At least one Professional in each family

Khandelwals are born with a business DNA. Their perfect control over finance endows them a strong grip on entire spectrum of business activities and their appetite for risk has taken them places. Always mindful of the changing dynamics, Khandelwals are adept at making the best out of opportunities. In essence, they are blessed with commercially bent mind making them extremely good at professional services.

We can sustain this momentum only by constantly building upon our strengths and ensuring that at least one person from each family pursues a professional career.

Let's make it achievers' community

Any community takes immense pride in being the achievers community and the one known for its prospering people. In a globalized economy, professional education has become a far-reaching aspect of academic scenario. Khandelwal Professionals Association (KPA) came in to action as a catalyst for those aiming for bigger challenges in life. Their idea of affordable professional education for deserving society members will form a commendable growth graph in upcoming years. United to create a buzz about the noticeable change in education, KPA invites well-read brains from society to support the change. The purpose is to build a strong foundation for our rapidly growing society and nation.

Realizing the mission

Knowing that lack of funds, facilities and best alternates have been major obstacles to many young aspirants, a shared goal of uplifting the Khandelwal society and those deprived of facilities brought Khandelwal Professional Association (KPA) into existence. A group of qualified and committed professionals voluntarily came forward with their contributive initiatives. They work to bring a pragmatic change in the field of education thus fostering the development of society. Their prime motto is to mentor, guide, polish and facilitate many aspiring dreamers in attaining new heights.

Khandelwal team at work

KPA as a philanthropic organization is putting its best foot forward to promote the professional education in the society. The association is working on key notions which can make a big difference to the exponential growth of society, bringing their aim to reality.

-  Promotion and advancement of professional education
-  Exchange of ideas
-  Career oriented activities like seminars, conferences, workshops, personal development and counseling (mentoring and guidance)
-  Building network across the world with Khandelwal society members
-  Benefitting aspiring professionals by providing them financial assistance, stipends and concessions during their educational tenure
-  Arranging scholarship programs

Initiatives & contributions

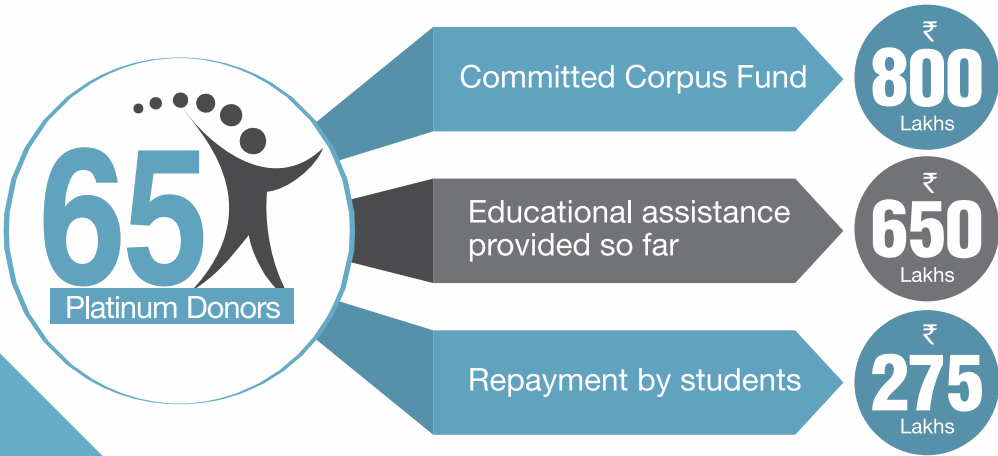

Conclave

An interactive session is being arranged twice in a year by the members of association to make the professionals from different field meet on one platform. This gathering is organized to spread the noteworthy word about the importance of professional education. Professionals from diversified fields do come and boost the morale of fresher's. Their doubts and queries get their way to solutions and conclusions. Along with the knowledge sharing session, this practice is more of feeling proud of the flourishing Khandelwal society.

Counseling

Counseling helps many new comers in the very sensitive yet important phase of decision making. The counseling session plays a major role in making an individual decisive about their future targets. These sessions help them in picking an appropriate career and proceed with firm thought process. This contribution of KPA is to promote those underrated dreams and guide them towards the best of it.
